Dear Mr. Stewart,

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter dated September 5, 1988, regarding the work of Trooper Steven Kelley retrieving your Canon 35 MM camera.

We are always pleased to hear when our members perform their duties in a level such as described in your letter. Trooper Kelley is highly regarded by all of us at Troop "E".

Thank you again for taking the time to write. A copy of your letter will be included in Trooper Kelley's Personnel file.

We hope you will visit New York State again in the future and if the need arises do not hesitate to call upon us again.

Sincerely,

Sept. 5/88

New York State Police,
Waterloo Station.

My family and I had a wonderful vacation travelling through upstate New York. We spent most of our time in the Finger Lakes District and around Port Conango. I was so a must in this part of the state and I had my Canon 35 mm. loaded
and ready.

Upon arriving in Old Forge, N.Y., I discovered the camera missing.
Thinking back, I remembered that I had used it last at Seneca Falls and had left it at the visitor/tourist information booth. What now?

A phone call to the State Police in Old Forge got me a telephone number of the State Police in Waterloo. A second call got me an understanding operator who assured me that this was not too trivial a matter and that the dispatcher would see what could be done. Having related all the particulars, I was once again assured that a State Trooper would "check into it" and that I should call back the next day at noon.

By noon of the following day, State Trooper Steven Kelley had retrieved the camera and we were able to make arrangements to have it sent by postal service to Lake Placid, our next stop.

I picked it up the next morning at 10:00 AM much relieved and much appreciative of the help of so many.

So thanks again New York State Police and especially Trooper Kelley. I'm sure that you went further than your job required you to in order to get this "crazy Canuck" on with his vacation.

Yours sincerely,
 Rod Stewart
