LETTER OF COMMENDATION

May 23, 1995

Trooper Steven M. Kelley
SP Waterloo

Dear Trooper Kelley:

Each year, a number of members of the Division of New York State Police assigned to Troop "E" exemplify the characteristics normally associated with the term "New York State Trooper" through their dedication, outstanding performance and diligence to duty. As the need for police services continues to increase and the demands of a career in law enforcement grow, these members routinely put forth the extra effort to meet the challenge with enthusiasm and professionalism. Your accomplishments in 1994 reflect these qualities and the communities you serve are safer because of your commitment.

In 1994, you made 242 Vehicle and Traffic Law Arrests, of which 5 were Driving While Intoxicated related offenses, and 75 Penal Law Arrests.

Your accomplishments are a credit to you and the entire members and staff of the New York State Police. You are hereby commended and congratulated for your faithfulness in carrying out your sworn duties. It is individuals like yourself who inspire other members to continue the proud tradition and reputation of the New York State Police.

Sincerely,

Major David L. Christler
Troop "E" Commander
