LETTER OF COMMENDATION

May 22, 1998

Trooper Steven M. Kelley
New York State Police
Waterloo, N.Y.

Dear Trooper Kelley:

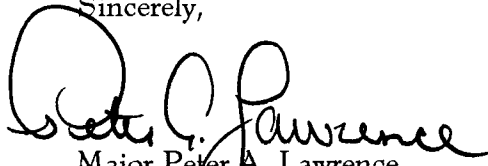

Each year, we take pride in recognizing those members of Troop "E" who have exemplified the qualities of dedication, diligence to duty, and outstanding performance. These characteristics are of extreme value in a New York State Trooper.

As the need for police services continues to increase and the demands of a career in law enforcement grow, these members routinely put forth the extra effort needed to meet these challenges with pride, enthusiasm, and professionalism. Your accomplishments in 1997 reflect these qualities and New York is a safer place to live because of your commitment.

In 1997, you made 227 Vehicle and Traffic Law Arrests, 23 of which were Drug Interdiction Arrests, along with 7 Driving While Intoxicated Arrests. You also made 62 Misdemeanor Arrests, and 4 Felony Arrests.

Your accomplishments are a credit to you and the members and staff of the New York State Police. You are hereby commended and congratulated for your faithfulness in carrying out your sworn duties. It is individuals like yourself who inspire other members to continue the proud tradition and reputation of the New York State Police.

Sincerely,

Major Peter A. Lawrence
Troop "E" Commander
