Detective Gregory Gonzalez

Detective Gregory Gonzalez has served the Suffolk County Police Department for over 17 years. Assigned to the Vehicle Theft Section 8 1/2 years ago, Detective Gonzalez has conducted vehicle and marine-related investigations. Prior to this, Detective Gonzalez was part of the Neighborhood Enforcement Team (NET) of the Narcotics Section and the Fourth Precinct Crime Control Section, conducting both undercover and case investigations.

Detective Gonzalez is currently a Bureau of Municipal Police (BMP) certified instructor and has lectured to the Police recruits at the SCPD Academy on VIN numbers, insurance fraud and stolen/retagged vehicle investigations. He has also instructed at the FBI Academy, Quantico, Virginia; the Connecticut State Police Academy; and has conducted in-service training for veteran police officers.

Detective Gonzalez is a member of the International Association of Auto Theft Investigators (IAATI) and the International Association of Marine Investigators (IAMI).

Investigator Steven Kelley

Investigator Steven Kelley is a 17-year veteran of the New York State Police, currently serving in the Special Investigation/Auto Theft Unit, Rochester, New York, where he was assigned in 1998. In this capacity he has conducted major auto theft and insurance fraud investigations for the State Police and has assisted outside agencies with vehicle identifications and training. In addition to motor vehicle related investigations, Investigator Kelley has an extensive background in search warrant preparation and narcotics investigations. He is a certified fire investigator and defensive tactics instructor.

Investigator Kelley is both a member and a certified auto theft investigator for the Northeast Chapter of IATTI (NEIATTI). He is also a Bureau of Municipal Police (BMP) certified instructor and has been instructing at the New York State Police Academy for 10 years.

Detective Glenn Kirkpatrick

Detective Glenn Kirkpatrick has served the Suffolk County Police Department for over 17 years. Since his transfer 8 1/2 years ago to the Vehicle Theft Section, he has conducted vehicle and marine-related investigations. Detective Kirkpatrick has also assisted several outside jurisdictions with the identification of motor vehicles.

Prior to this, Detective Kirkpatrick worked in the Fourth Precinct Crime Control Unit, conducting both undercover and case investigations.

Detective Kirkpatrick is currently a Bureau of Municipal Police (BMP) certified instructor and has lectured to the Police recruits at the SCPD Academy on VIN numbers, insurance fraud and stolen/retagged vehicle investigations. He has also instructed at the FBI Academy, Quantico, Virginia; the Connecticut State Police Academy; the New York State Police Academy; several NYACT seminars; as well as the Suffolk County Police Department's Advanced Criminal Investigator's Course, High Tech Crimes Section.

Detective Kirkpatrick is a Regional Director of the International Association of Auto Theft Investigators (IAATI), a member of the International Association of Marine Investigators (IAMI), the Eastern States Criminal Investigator's Association (ESCIA) and the Transportation Loss Prevention and Security Council (TLP&SC).
